THE SCHOOL OF BOCA BALLET THEATRE HOSTS THE 2016 – 2017 SCHOOL KICKOFF

Boca Raton – On August 20th, 2016, The School of Boca Ballet Theatre welcomed new and returning students to the 2016 – 2017 dance classes with a well-attended, fun and informative open house at Boca Ballet Theatre’s Countess de Hoernle Center for Dance.

The School Director/Co-Artistic Director, Jane Tyree, welcomed everyone to the new year of classes. She introduced Natalie Parker, the Chairperson for the upcoming “A Princely Affair” who filled everyone in on the October 23rd performance and luncheon. Ms. Tyree also introduced Roni Robert, the Boca Ballet Theatre Guild President and Event Coordinator, who encouraged everyone to purchase their season tickets which are now available by calling the box office.

The school kickoff featured wine and hors de oeuvres for the parents and snacks and deserts for the students sponsored by Joseph’s Classic Market. The evening included an amazing DJ, M.C. Alex Entertainment Group, and Alex had young and not so young alike up on their feet dancing. They did line dances and even the limbo, fun was had by all.
