BOCA BALLET THEATRE'S SPRING MIX SUCCESS IS CELEBRATED AT RENZO'S CAFÉ & PIZZERIA

Boca Raton FL (May, 2016) – After the entertaining Saturday night Spring Mix performance, dancers, patrons and friends of Boca Ballet Theatre were greeted with great food and warm hospitality at Renzo's Café & Pizzeria in Boca Raton, thanks to Owner Renzo Sciortino. Boca Ballet Theatre's production proudly featured Emily Bromberg and Shimon Ito, both Soloists from Miami City Ballet, who thrilled the audience with their dance range going from classic ballet to a sultry contemporary number.

The exciting repertory concert began with Moonlight Concerto, choreographed by Jennifer Vanucchi Dolan and the anticipation continued with Strata, choreographed by Sanjay Saverimuttu (a Boca Raton native); Bournonville Suite from Napoli and Flower Festival at Genzano, featuring the amazing guests artists Emily Bromberg and Shimon Ito, which also featured Rob Morrow, Sanjay Saverimuttu and Ryan Stokes from Louisville Ballet and Shannon Smith formerly of Sarasota Ballet; Blue Bird pas de deux from The Sleeping Beauty, featured Sasha Lazarus and Sanjay Saverimuttu; Viscera featuring Emily Bromberg and Shimon Ito and Ella Sang, choreographed by Dan Guin. Of course the incredible dancers from the school of Boca Ballet Theatre were featured throughout and they were absolutely exquisite.

Among the honored guests joining the dancers for the après at Renzo's were Martin Riskin, Marleen Forkas, Madelyn Savarick, Seth and Fran Marmor, John and Michelle Kever, Blake and Seton Smith, Seth and Roni Robert, Natalie Parker and Mark and Gail Baker. The partygoers enjoyed drinks, music, getting to know the dancers a little better and an amazing array of pastas, salads and pizzas. We would like to thank Renzo Sciortino for treating us like family and providing such a memorable après experience!
