The number of enrolled participants doubled last year, and space is limited! Register now in order to secure your spot!

Rising High School juniors and seniors are eligible to participate. Registration includes a boxed lunch for the students on Saturday and Sunday, up to three master classes a day, and informational sessions.

While much information is available online, there is no substitute for students to meet with dance faculty in person and to experience a class given by a faculty member. Many students are limited in their college searches due to time and money. Boca Ballet Theatre and Só Dança are pleased to offer a solution that is cost and time-efficient, and that opens the door to a vast array of resources and experience.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS: Last year's College Dance Fair was especially helpful for several dancers who received offers from universities. The professors and the parents can benefit as well, by building a unique network and establishing new relationships.

Register by August 1, 2014 to receive $50 off! Early Registration is $119 or $169 after August 1st.
