Turn-out for The Stars: Stars of American Ballet in concert with Boca Ballet Theatre

MARCH 5, 2014 - Madelyn Savarick and Boca Ballet Theatre present this one-night-only performance featuring Daniel Ulbricht, award-winning Principal dancer with New York City Ballet, and Founder of Stars of American Ballet. Ulbricht brings his troupe to the Countess de Hoernle Theatre at Spanish River High School to join forces with Boca Ballet Theatre, showcasing top notch choreography. NYCB dancers Megan Fairchild, Robert Fairchild, Tiler Peck, Andrew Veyette, and Lauren King are scheduled to perform. Don't miss this rare opportunity to experience such an array of artistry outside of Lincoln Center.

Mr. Ulbricht has starred in numerous Boca Ballet Theatre productions as a guest artist, as well as at BBT's A Princely Affair event, where he thrilled patrons while dancing with Megan Fairchild.

The evening also features a pre-performance introduction by guest Emcee Steven Caras, former New York City Ballet Dancer and subject of the Emmy Award-winning documentary, Steven Caras: See Them Dance.

Boca Ballet Theatre dancers will perform Voyage Classique, choreographed by Dan Guin. Influenced by 19th century classicism, Voyage Classique is performed in classical tutus and features music excerpts from Leo Delibes' full-length ballet La Source. The nature of this special evening corresponds directly with Boca Ballet Theatre's goal to provide an opportunity for the new generation of aspiring dancers to perform with professionals, merging the stars of today with the stars of tomorrow.

"Turn-out for the Stars", a special benefit dinner with the artists, will be held immediately following the performance at The Seagate Beach Club. Tickets sold separately; please call for more information.
